Love

Love is patient,
 love is kind ...
 It always protects, always trusts,
 always hopes, always preserves.

1 Corinthians 13:4,7

Building A Better World

Building a better world begins with me. I must be willing to give my time, talents, money and energies to make the world in which I live a better place. I truly believe that the only real way to make this world better is for me to be a faithful and dedicated child of God. A faithful and dedicated child of God will proclaim the good news of salvation. Jesus said, “Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature” (Mark 16:15). The word “gospel” means good news. We have good news to tell the world. The news of salvation and forgiveness. The news of God’s wonderful love and offer of pardon. Are we working to build a better world by preaching Christ?

We can build a better world by being positive about life. So many are filled with the critical spirit. They see very little good anywhere. There is so much that is good in our world that we should be thankful for. I don’t want to waste my life looking only at the ugly and bad. God has given me so much that is good and it would be sinful for me to fail to recognize that. In Philippians 4:8 Paul said that the things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, and of good report are the things I should dwell on. This does not mean that I will refuse to recognize false doctrine and condemn that which is evil. It does mean that my overall life will be one of a positive and happy nature. Only in tears and a broken heart will I point out the devil. I will do so “in meekness and fear” (1 Pet. 3:15b).

We can build a better world by prayer. The great force of prayer has in many ways been neglected by many of God’s people. The Bible says, “The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much” (James 5:16b). I think of the great prayers of Moses who on several occasions saved the people of Israel by his steadfast prayers. I think of the prayers of David that delivered him time and time again from his enemies. I am reminded of the great prayers of Elijah and that God worked through Elijah to proclaim to the world His great power. Prayer can be used by God’s people to make this world better.

Finally, we can build a better world by keeping our heart in heaven! The Bible says, “Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth” (Col. 3:2). This may sound rather strange but it is the truth. Often, it is the case that people get so caught up in the here and now that they fail to really contribute to the welfare of mankind. By keeping our eyes on heaven we will be a better people. We will be able to see what is really important and what is of minor consequence. Many are majoring in minors and minoring in majors. We can build a better world by keeping our hearts in heaven! We can build a better world if we will only become partners with God. As our beloved brother Paul said, “I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me” (Phil. 4:13).

Bible Quiz: James 2:14-19

1. Is there any profit in saying you have faith if you don’t show it by works?
2. Is failing to provide a fellow Christian with things they need an indicator of faith?
3. “Thus also __ by itself, if it does have __, is __.”
4. Is it possible to show your faith with works?
5. “Even the __ believe—and __!”

Solution: no; no; faith, works, dead; no; demons, tremble

HAMPTONS HEALTH CORNER

August is child eye health/safety awareness month . Please be sure your family has annual eye examinations. If your children participate in sports, they should have the correct protective eye equipment to prevent injuries. Some older adults suffer from cataracts. A cataract is when the clear lens of the eye becomes cloudy. A cataract progresses slowly and if not treated can eventually affect your vision and in some cases cause blindness. Cataracts can usually be surgically removed safely and easily.

August is also psoriasis awareness month. Psoriasis is an autoimmune disease that causes raised, red, scaly patches often on the elbow, knees, or scalp. Psoriasis can cause burning, stinging, or itching. If you develop a rash that doesn’t go away with over the counter medication, please contact your doctor. www.psoriasis.org.

Does God Hear Prayers?

Most of us have prayed and asked God for help with some burden or problem, but it seemed there was no answer. Have you ever wondered if God really hears your prayers? Does an unanswered prayer mean that God doesn't listen to us?

God's word assures us that He does hear the prayers of those who obey Him. Solomon wrote, "The Lord is far from the wicked: but He hears the prayer of the righteous" (Proverbs 15:29). James said, "The effective fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" (James 5:16). Peter quoted from the Psalms, "For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and His ears are open to their prayers" (1 Peter 3:12).

Why then does God often not give us those requests for which we ask? Did you know that God did not give Jesus the answer for which He prayed in the garden of Gethsemane? (Matt. 26:39). Nor did Paul get his thorn in his flesh removed, even though he asked three times for God to do that (2 Cor. 12:7-9). Thus, even though God hears our petitions, He has not promised to say "yes" to all for which we ask.

May we never doubt God nor doubt that He hears the prayers of the righteous. But let us remember the responsibility we have to hear and obey His Word. Let us also always pray as Jesus did,

"nevertheless not as I will, but as You (Father) will" (Matt 26:39).
